Yes, laugh. Go on, laugh. There's them on this island as would laugh at anything. And what happened? What's grownups goin' to think? Young Simon was murdered. And there was that other kid what had a mark on his face. Who's seen him since we first come here?" Ralph Jack Piggy Roger Simon Henry Samneric Lord of the Flies Who says the following?"I'm going to him with this conch in my hands. I'm going to hold it out. Look, I'm goin' to say, you're stronger than I am and you haven't got asthma. You can see, I'm goin' to say, and with both eyes. But I don't ask you to be a sport, I'll say, not because you're strong, but because what's right's right. Give me my glasses, I'm going to say—you got to!" Ralph Jack Piggy Roger Simon Henry Samneric Lord of the Flies "A little boy who wore the remains of an extraordinary black cap on his red hair and who carried the remains of a pair of spectacles at his waist, started forward, then changed his mind and stood still."What character is the narrator talking about in this passage? Ralph Jack Piggy Roger Simon Henry Samneric Lord of the Flies Who says the following?"Fancy thinking the Beast was something you could hunt and kill! You knew, didn't you? I'm part of you? Close, close, close! I'm the reason why it's no go? Why things are what they are?" Ralph Jack Piggy Roger Simon Henry Samneric Lord of the Flies "You are a silly little boy," said the Lord of the Flies, 'just an ignorant, silly little boy.'This is an example of _____ personification symbol setting complication protagonist foil 45 Questions | Total Attempts: 2150 How does Ralph react when a boar comes charging down the path? His spear hits, but does not deter, the boar. His excitement at wounding a living creature shows Ralph his dark side. Ralph is afraid to throw his spear. He is able to hide from the boar, but realizes how fearful he really is. Ralph refuses to hurt the animal. He is proud of his ability to retain some semblance of civilization. Ralph injures the boar. He does not feel good about his actions, but rationalizes them in the name of self-defense. To what does Ralph's demonstration of his hunting prowess lead? It re-establishes him as the leader, and the boys rekindle the signal fire. It makes the littluns afraid of him and they run and hide Jack realizes Ralph's strength and vows to fight him The boys go into a hunting frenzy and begin jabbing and poking at Robert What did the boys see on the mountaintop? The see a strange ape-like beast that seems to move back and forth They see a light on the water in the distance They see the remains of an ancient burial ground They see a pack of wild dogs eating a piglet How does the author show the increase in evil in the boys?
